Dear Ms. Best:

This is a final response to your 10 September 2018 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for unredacted copies of the attached documents, along with unredacted copies of other documents in the box, job and folder, CIA-RDP78-04718A0006000300 (i.e. CIA-RDP78-04718A000600030030-1, CIA-RDP78-04718A000600030029-2, etc.). We processed your request in accordance with the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552, as amended, and the CIA Information Act, 50 U.S.C. § 3141, as amended.

With regard to the portion of your request for a re-review of two documents, we located and completed a re-review of the documents responsive to your request. We determined that no additional information can be released in the documents with deletions continuing to made on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). Therefore, copies of the documents as previously released are enclosed. Exemption (b)(3) pertains to information exempt from disclosure by statute. The relevant statutes are Section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and Section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended.

With regard to the portion of your request for “other documents in the box, job and folder...” we did not locate any records responsive to this portion of your request. Although our searches were reasonably calculated to uncover all relevant documents, and it is highly unlikely that repeating those searches would change the result, you nevertheless have the legal right to appeal the finding of no records responsive to your request.

As the CIA Information and Privacy Coordinator, I am the CIA official responsible for this determination. You have the right to appeal this response to the Agency Release Panel, in my care, within 90 days from the date of this letter. Please include the basis of your appeal.
